

Welcome to the CPHR Academic Program! Your access to the course(s) in which you have registered begins on the First Day of your current semester. Here are the steps to follow in order to ensure that you are informed of the educational resources and course requirements, which will help you to successfully complete your course(s).

- If you have not yet obtained your textbook for each course, please do so by clicking the appropriate link from This Page. Please follow the instructions for purchasing the textbook carefully to ensure a smooth process.
- You will be able to access your course website(s) from This Page, which links to the homepage of the courses.
- To know the educational resources available for learning and interacting with your instructor and fellow students; as well as to know what you are required to submit during the semester and when it is due, please read the Course Kit first for each course in which you are registered. The link to the Course Kit is on the course homepage under IMPORTANT LINKS.
- Then, familiarize yourself with all the other course components and features under the IMPORTANT LINKS. Note that the Multimedia link provides you with the lectures on the topics of the course. When you are engaging with the lectures, also study the textbook reading assignments for a thorough coverage of the topics. The Discussion Assignments enable you to demonstrate your learning to your instructor and share it with fellow students. The Assignments, Mid-Term Essay (in most courses) and Final Exam are important contributors to your course grade.
- For Sessional Dates, Accommodation, and Other Policies that may be important if you were to experience any personal issues, please review This Page.
